

Site Survey Checklist

	When you visit your shooting location, try to accomplish these tasks before you call it a day.
	Indoor
<input type="checkbox"/>	Find the main power box or circuit breaker.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Locate the building engineer.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Examine fuses and identify maximum load for circuits.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Check if wall sockets are grounded.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Check wall outlets with circuit testers.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine cable runs and the number of extension cords needed.
	Outdoor
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine the sun path for given shoot day.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify sunrise, twilight, dusk, and sunset.
	Sound
<input type="checkbox"/>	Listen for extraneous sounds that may be present on shoot day.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Record room tone for analysis.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine if you have control over the HVAC system.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Evaluate control via scheduling time of day.
	Logistics
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine where you park production vehicles.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine where gear will be staged.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify bathrooms.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify food or craft services options.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine if any additional permissions are needed.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Determine the schedule for access to the location.
	Creative
<input type="checkbox"/>	Perform basic blocking of camera positions.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Create a basic lighting plan.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Identify the additional props needed.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Document basic shooting order and schedule.